

342, Survey of Theology II
Western Reformed Seminary
Christopher Lensch, S.T.M.
Spring 2010

COURSE INFORMATION

Course goals — This course is designed to survey the areas of Christology, predestination, soteriology, the atonement, ecclesiology and eschatology. This is a survey course comprehending the same subjects studied more deeply in Theology III and IV. The outline notes used for this class are heavily dependent upon Dr. Battle's notes for those day-time theology classes.

Required reading assignment

- 1st reading assignment by mid-term exam
 1. A. A. Hodge, Outlines of Theology for Students and Laymen, chpts. 22-35.
 2. EITHER Arthur W. Pink, The Sovereignty of God OR Lorraine Boettner, The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination, Sections I, III-V
- 2nd reading assignment by final exam
 3. A. A. Hodge, Outlines of Theology for Students and Laymen, chpts. 35-43
 4. EITHER R.B Kuiper, The Glorious Body of Christ, (1-18,25-36,39-42)
OR Robert Clouse, ed., The Meaning of the Millennium

Written assignment — Write a ten-page paper on one of the doctrines covered in this course. At a minimum, the bibliography should include at least three systematic theology works, one historical theology, and one theological dictionary. Endnotes are acceptable. For topic suggestions see the instructor. Due the final class.

Attendance — School policy allows one unexcused absence; let the instructor know if you are ill or have a family emergency.

Grading — Required reading	20%	Term Paper	15%
Midterm exam	30%	Final exam	30%
Attendance	5%

Course schedule

Jan	25 - Introduction, covenant of grace
Feb	1 - Christology
	8 - Predestination
	15 - Predestination
	22 - Soteriology
Mar	1 - Soteriology
	8 - The atonement
	15 - Midterm Exam - 1st reading assignment due
	22 - The atonement
	29 - Spring Recess
Apr	5 - Ecclesiology
	12 - Ecclesiology
	19 - Eschatology
	26 - Eschatology
May	3 - Catch Up; term paper due
	10 - Final Exam; 2nd reading assignment due